Yasmina

Egyptian Dance Workshops

All classes in Edinburgh, 10 to 12 July 2008

Check www.bellydancedivas.co.uk for maps, latest information & to book online

Venue is EICA, near Ratho, Edinburgh – with cafe, showers, lockers & a proper studio with mirrors & sprung floor.

As a 'foreigner', UK born Yasmina has lived in the Middle East for over 15 years, Yasmina is in the unique position of being able to explain fully in a way that we can understand and break things down completely.

Having trained with Ibrahim Akef and Raqia Hassan, among others, Yasmina has a vast amount of knowledge of Egyptian dance and culture. She also writes regularly for NADA Magazine.

Yasmina also produced music CD's – with music especially arranged for a dancer. Aheb Mesr is her first CD, and she is currently working on a second CD.

She is occasionally persuaded to bring some fab Eman Zaki (Egyptian Designer) costumes with her on tour...

Phone or email if you would like a booking form posted out to you.

None of Yasminas classes are suitable for beginners. The Saturday classes will be at a slightly lower level than the Sunday ones, technique will be broken down more, these are a good introduction to what Yasmina does.

Yasmina, Egyptian Dance Weekend, Edinburgh, 10 to 12 July 2008

Friday Night:
6.30p - 8.30p	Friday 10 July night Masterclass—Edinburgh Challenge yourself—learn difficult & complex moves from parts of different choreographies, and combinations that Yasmina is working on right now. Moves that Yasmina is currently developing and challenging herself with. While this class is aimed at advanced and professional levels, intermediates wishing to push themselves can attend.	£22
None of Yasminas classes are suitable for absolute beginners. You must be comfortable with all the basics (camel, egyptian walk a.k.a hagalla, layering Shimmy, walking all the moves) The Saturday classes will be at a slightly lower level than the Sunday ones, technique will be broken down more, these are a good introduction to what Yasmina does.
Saturday 11 July
11am — 11.45	Saturday 11 July Wake up & Stretch taught by Roisin Crosse—Edinburgh Essential information for minimising injury and prolonging your dance career from professional physiotherapist Roisin Crosse. This class will involve some stretching, and some periods of non stretching where Roisin demos and explains. Bring a fold up chair if you can to this class (bring two and lend one to a fellow class mate and we will love you forever!).	£10
12.00 — 14.00	Saturday 11 July Latest Technique and Combinations—Edinburgh Yasmina is known for her ability to break the technique down completely. Update your technique ! Don't miss this fun class as she brings over new and latest steps and combinations direct from Cairo Intermediate and advanced	£22
15.00 — 17.00	Saturday 11 July Fun Pop Saidii Choreography - Edinburgh For those of you who want to learn how to work with a prop, and to dance to those heavier Saidii rhythms. Learn a short fun pop Saidii Choreography from Yasmina. Bring a stick to class, bring two and make a friend for life when you lend your spare ! Intermediate/Advanced	£22

Sat 11 July—Sarisvati Tribal present their show "Extraordinesque!" Expect the Unexpected..." Sarasvati Tribal bring you their first full troupe show, an extravaganza of stunning and exciting performances, with fabulous costumes and an eclectic soundtrack from the Middle East, Balkans and beyond! Special Guest Dancer: Belly Dancing Caroline Edinburgh venue / ticket sales are currently being arranged by Sarisvati Tribal. As soon as more info is available, updates will appear on www.bellydancedivas.co.uk .
Special Offer – book at least 4 classes, and buy “Saturday 11 July — Wake up & Stretch with Roisin —Edinburgh “ for only £5
Sunday 12 July
12.30 - 14.30	Sunday 12 July How to Interpret Egyptian Songs—Part 1 - Edinburgh Dance like you know what they're singing about ! Ever worry that you are dancing with a happy smile when the song is talking about a broken heart ? Not sure how to appropriately express the meanings through dance anyway ? Yasmina shows how to interpret Egyptian songs, learning how to best use them and their specific meanings within the dance, so that your dance expresses the meaning of the song. This is a class of two parts, and both classes must be booked together. There will be some parts of the class where Yasmina is talking & explaining lyrics with no dancing - so please bring warm jumper / socks to keep warm during these periods. Intermediate/Advanced/Professional	£22
15.30 — 17.30	Sunday 12 July How to Interpret Egyptian Songs—Part 2 - Edinburgh This class uses and builds on the first session. Because the classes are linked, they cannot be booked separately. Please bring a veil that doesn't have sequins or beads (we may not use the veil, but it's always handy to have just incase). Intermediate/Advanced/Professional	£22
